Cherry Twydell (1985)

Call: 1985 Middle Temple
Tenant: Since 1999
Practice: Family Law and Civil Law

Specialising in Ancillary Relief and Trusts of Land litigation, Private and Public Children Act actions, Adoption, and Social Security Law.

Ms Twydell has an extensive practice in matrimonial proceedings, private and public Children Act and Trusts of Land Act matters. She also has expertise in child support and social security law. She is a part time judge, collaborative law practitioner and family law mediator.

Ms Twydell is an extremely experienced and able advocate, having practised as both a solicitor and barrister. This background enables her to draw on both perspectives resulting in the legal and emotional needs of the client being given priority at all stages of their case.

Careful and thorough preparation ensures that Ms Twydell provides the best possible representation for the client. Her experience as a part time judge has developed her skills in identifying legal issues from a judicial perspective, which ensures focus and clarification when giving advice and guidance to clients and/or instructing solicitors.
