

Josephine Spratt-Dawson (1993)

Call: 1993 Gray's Inn
 Tenant: Since 1997
 Practice: Family and Civil Law

Specialising in Ancillary relief and all aspects of family law, Children Act applications, chancery actions including contested probate, trusts, real property, contract and negligence.

Miss Spratt-Dawson was engaged in commerce for fourteen years prior to being called to the Bar. Her business experience provides her with valuable expertise in respect of disputes arising from commercial activities.

She has practised in Chelmsford throughout her career. Born in Essex, Miss Spratt-Dawson has strong local links and brings with her practical local knowledge which is of value in many of the cases she handles.

Miss Spratt-Dawson has established a busy practice in family and civil law with a strong emphasis on ancillary relief and general chancery matters including contested trust and probate actions.

She has a reputation for her tenacious approach to her advocacy whilst being able to deal with sensitive issues in a calm and practical manner.

Miss Spratt-Dawson can always be relied upon to give firm and fair advice even in the most difficult of circumstances. She has concern and understanding for her client which enables them to have confidence that she will do all she can to progress the matter without giving unrealistic expectations.

Member of the FLBA.

A Legal 500 Recommended Barrister

Miss Spratt-Dawson's expertise in family and children law has been recommended by the Legal 500 in the 2014 edition of their industry-leading directory.

"Her family practice has a strong emphasis on financial remedy"

Find the right Barrister

Please contact us to discuss which Trinity Chambers Barrister has the right experience and skills for your case.

Call: 01245 605040

clerks@trinitychambers.com

Browse Trinity Chambers Barristers

All Barristers >>

Browse Areas of Practice

Areas of Practice >>

Clerks' Room

Meet Trinity Chambers' Clerk Team >>

Trinity Chambers

Mediation
 Our Team
 Public Access

Our Expertise

Family
 Private Civil Law

Our Team

Find a Barrister

Client Care

General Policies Complaints
 Quality Standards

